STUDENT LIFE

T-Bird Chiefs charge with energy

The energy of Thunderbird's chiefs rarely runs low. From early morning eagerness to late night loudness, students' energy hardly ceases. Only during a quick nap to recharge, will one find a chief inactive. Even after they spend their energy speeding to school, running to lunch, and rushing home, there is always a little more for free time.

Chiefs' lives are far from boring. They are always on the move: going places, doing things, and seeing people. They fill their time with school and various activities from hot-air ballooning to jogging to eating. Every moment is special; every hour is exciting. Their lives are nonstop. And no matter the activity, you can be sure it is filled with fun, friends, and freedom.

The chiefs are full of excitement and energy this year. Thunderbird's campus is bursting with rushing administrators, busy teachers, and frantic students. But even during the long school hours, the spirit of fun can be found. Not Biology, English, Government, nor Algebra can stop the chiefs from moving on. So, watch out world — the Chiefs are charging.

UP! UP! AND AWAY! This was only one of the many exciting exhibits offered by the state fair this year.

Above: Around and around and upside!! Superloops gave thrills and chills as the favorite ride of students. Below: The Arizona State Fair drew thousands of people as well as hundreds of Thunderbird students. Each was able to find an activity to suit their wants.

"Oh no! another bump," This ride isn't as smooth as I thought.

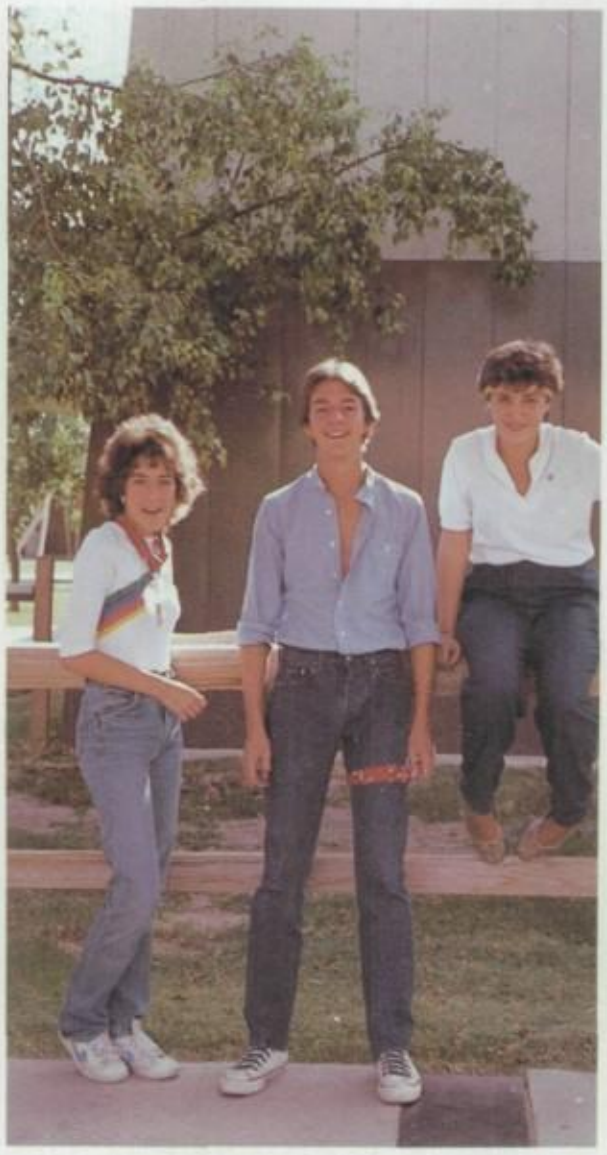
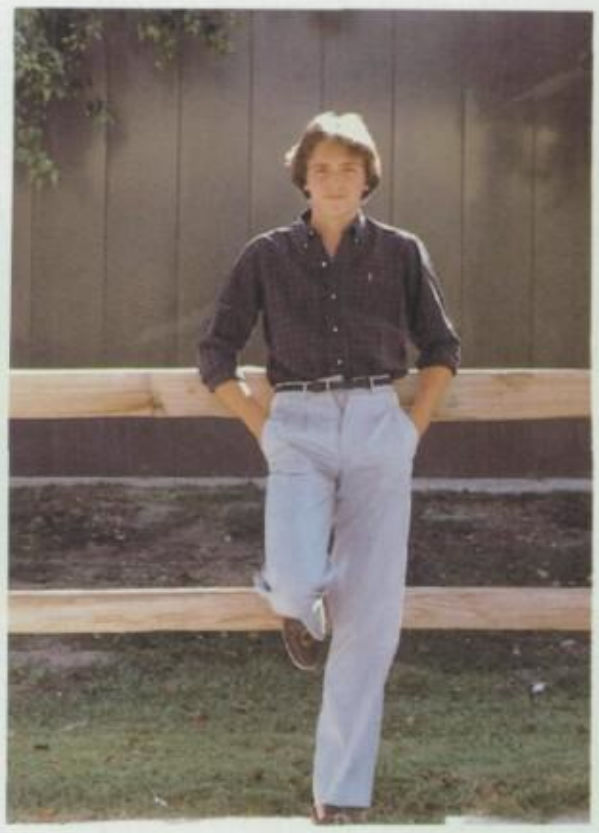
Fads and fashions

The group, the Go-Go's have brought back the 50's style, mini-skirts. They vary in color, style, and length. Modeled here by Vicky Eggen, Cheryl Pingleton, and Chris Johnson.



Bandanas are used to enhance wardrobes, Paula Lyons uses them around her neck, John Bondi ties it around his leg while Gricel Colon wears it as a headband.



Preppy is still with us. Polo shirts, Top siders, Pleated pants make preppy clean cut-looking Shown here by Larry Church.

Vans have just arrived from California. They are differing in style from shoe to shoe. Checkers, stripes, and bright colors are the trade-mark of these shoes.

By Jill Russell

Fashions of the "82-83" school year varied a great deal. Different styles and fads were seen all over campus. It was a year where students fought for identity through what they wore.

New Wave consisted of miniskirts, checkers, polkadots, punk glasses, and cropped hair. This style went hand in hand with music performed by The Go's Go's, Destroyers and many other bands.

The surfer look really hit big. Plaid burmuda shorts, long-sleeved t-shirts, vans, and varnė sunglasses were some of the many different styles.

Bandanas were used to accent a lot of wardrobes. They were found tied around necks, legs, arms and also used for headbands.

The preppy look, carried out from the previous year, got a little more in detail. Oxfords were worn with thin ties along with knickers and pleated pants worn with the traditional topsiders.

Throughout the year, fashions altered and styles were seen of wide variety, practically anything was acceptable worn by the students.

O.P. and Brittania are brands seen all over campus. Steve Goble and Brian Bennington show off their casual wear.

Concert shirts are modeled by Tina Ludlow and Jackie Vaughn. These shirts are a symbol of what has come and gone. The day after a concert the campus can be seen dotted with shirts.

The new wave look is modeled by Kelly Levisee. The look includes spike heels, punk hair cuts, and colored tights.

Homecoming theme 'Day at Disneyland'

A day at Disneyland was the theme for the Homecoming week. The activities for the week were dress up days, class competition and spirit raisers.

Dress up days were Monday tourist day, Tuesday Tomarrowland, Wednesday Senior Toga, Thursday Small World, and Friday character or orange and blue day. Following the game was the Homecoming dance, the theme was "The Pirates of the Carribean" which went along with the homecoming theme. Attendants and King and Queen were announced at the game. Fall mystery unfolds on stage Plays done by Thunderbird in the past range from comedies, such as "The Curious Savage" to the supernatural and dramatic farces, such as "Blite Spirit".

"The Runner Stumbles" by Milan Stitt, is a murder mystery set in the early 1900's. Based on an actual trial in Solon Michigan, the story involves many scenes which include flashbacks by the main character.

Father Rivard (portrayed by Harry Sokol) is a young, ambitious priest assigned to a small parish so that he may write a book for the Bishop. He is later joined by Sister Rita (portrayed by Karla Jones) a teacher, so that she can take over the teaching because the other two teachers have become ill.

To keep the Sister from being exposed to the illness, she moves into the rectory and many problems begin.

Finally, Father Rivard leaves the parish and Sister Rita is murdered. Rivard is then brought to trial and the mystery is resolved.

"This play was chosen to depict the talent of the students at Thunderbird," commented Director Mrs. McSpadden, "And was not meant to offend any religious sect. It was a very challenging show directing and acting-wise and just adds another dimension to Thunderbird's versatile theatre department."

The cast of "The Runner Stumbles" include Harry Sokol as Father Rivard, Karla Jones as Sister Rita, Lisa Burns as Mrs. Shandig, Gary Mau as Toby Felker, Matthew Wilks as the Prosecutor, Ellen Roedel as Erna Prindle, Joel Laurin as Monsignor Nicholson, Meredith Froemke as Louise, and Darrell Clulow as Amos. Cathy Voss was Assistant to the Director and Laura Kello was the stage manager.

"All the scene changes were done mainly with lights and the actors steps. That made this play very difficult, technically." commented Laura Kello.

Performances were held November 18, 19, and 20 in the auditorium.

ARCA helps troubled students

ARCA is a prevention program which helps the students and families around the community. This is the first year at Thunderbird in which students have been on the prevention team.

"Many students think of us as a 'nark' committee," stated Lindsey Lawrence, "all we want to do is help the students who wish to be helped."

Lindsey Lawrence and Mindi Zilli, co-chairmen, look over the information.

Vocational students join together in V.I.C.A. to share their work experiences and train for the world of work. Students are placed in such fields as health, photography and electronics. Several students are working in hospitals, and doctors' offices as assistants or therapists. Each Spring V.I.C.A. members gather from all over the state to compete in the V.I.C.A. Skills Olympics. Most of the T.H.S. chapter participates in this demonstration of expertise and place in the upper ranks. Like other organizations on campus, V.I.C.A. does its share of fund raising to attend conferences and competitions. This year V.I.C.A. sold candy bars, homecoming pins, and conducted a car wash to raise money. Mr. Harkelroad is the driving force of V.I.C.A. and finds time in his busy schedule to be a friend and a guide to the members of his club.

Thunder volunteer staff works hard

The volunteer staff of Thunder works long hours after school to complete dummies, taking pictures, developing, writing captions, and copy. All are necessities in putting together a yearbook.

With only two people with previous experience, all the staff work together to keep up hopes and morale.

"A tremendous amount of hard work and care goes into developing a yearbook. "Togetherness" keeps us working as a team," said Debbie Nardozzi, assistant editor.

Our best business is newspaper

The newspaper staff wanted a new start, and a change in the name.

The newspaper staff is devoted to supplying students with news from campus to community.

The Challenge also includes students views on topics of each issue. The paper gives a wide coverage of the sports played at T.H.S. The challenge covers student life which makes us both laugh and cry. Challenge reporters use their words so well they can usually win an argument in their favor. Don't be fooled there is a lot of work that goes into making a paper. What better way to find out facts than the school paper. Support the Challenge and it's staff.

Will Thunderbird Choir make Top-40?

The four choirs at Thunderbird, Vocal Ensemble, Concert Choir, Troubadors, and Singing Warriors, enjoy another year. All choirs are involved in performances at festivals, tours and solo recitals. The choirs have a great emphasis on solo accomplishments, as well as musicianship. Plans are being made for their second annual album with local Epoch Studios.

The choirs of Thunderbird High represent the fine education of the school.

Chess, War Games increase members

Chess Club has increased the size of students by over twice the number of last year's club. Chess Club gives the students an opportunity to plan and participate strategy. Along with Chess there is also another club, War Games.

War Games gives the members a chance to fight battles and experience the challenges of wars.

Publications raise money for convention

The major Fund raising activity for Publications Club was a Christmas ornament sale. The money was used to pay for entry fees in various writing competitions and evaluation services. The club planned to sponsor four scholarships to Publications Workshop in Flagstaff this June. Another fund raiser for the club was a soft-drink sale during walk-through registration in May.

Club president was Carla Caesar. Vice president was Sarah Campbell, Secretary was Dalene Cloud, Treasurer was Lori Session, and sponsor was Jean Franovich.

"The purpose of the organization is to promote recognition of journalism students and to help the school publications financially. I think we succeeded on both counts," said Carla Caesar.

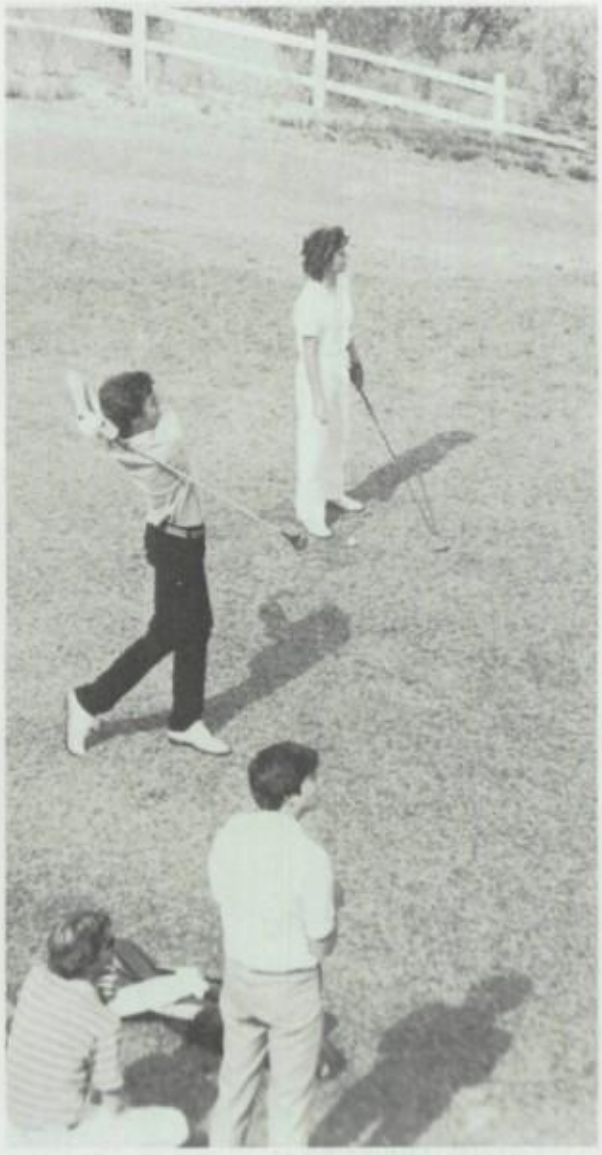
Golf

This year Thunderbird's Golf Team proved they were true chiefs with their scores.

In September, the team was the runner-up in Cambelback Invitational Tournament at the Arizona Biltmore. The team placed ninth in AAA State Tournament.

With such placements, it is easy to understand why the Golf Team seasonal record was twenty-one wins and seven losses. All of the players worked very hard and proved they were the best.

Paul Smith came in ninth in Divisionals while Danielle Ammaccapane was fifth in the state, placing her on the first All-Star team.



Danielle is the first student from Thunderbird to make the first All-State team.

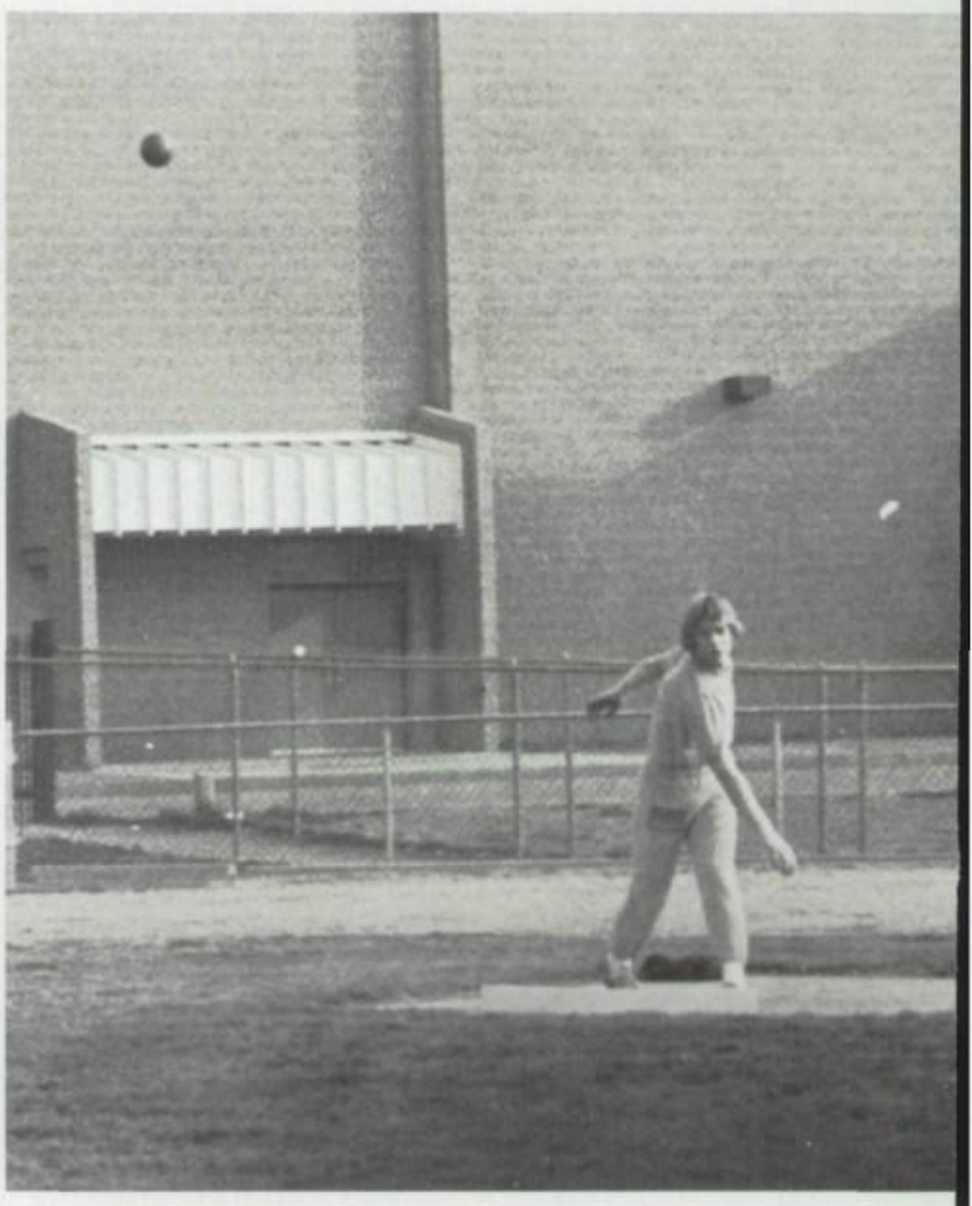
Kevin Wilkinson attempts to climb out of the high jump mat after his jump.



Watch the shot! Shot put is a tough and competitive sport.

This shot put event takes a lot of time and practice to perfect the skill of throwing the shot.

All the track members were racing to determine who was the fastest.

Girls Track

The high jump can be a fun event to be in if you can jump high and miss hitting the bar.

Lori Session runs during a practice to improve her technique and speed.

A good handoff is the bottom line to a fast finish in the relay competition.

Coach Kola cheers on team mates as they compete to see which student has the fastest time.

The hurdles are a special event which takes a coordinated person who can jump and run with accuracy at one time. Photos by Meyer & Honahni Practice can make all during a meet in the events which take a lot of springing action.

Varsity Baseball strikes it up

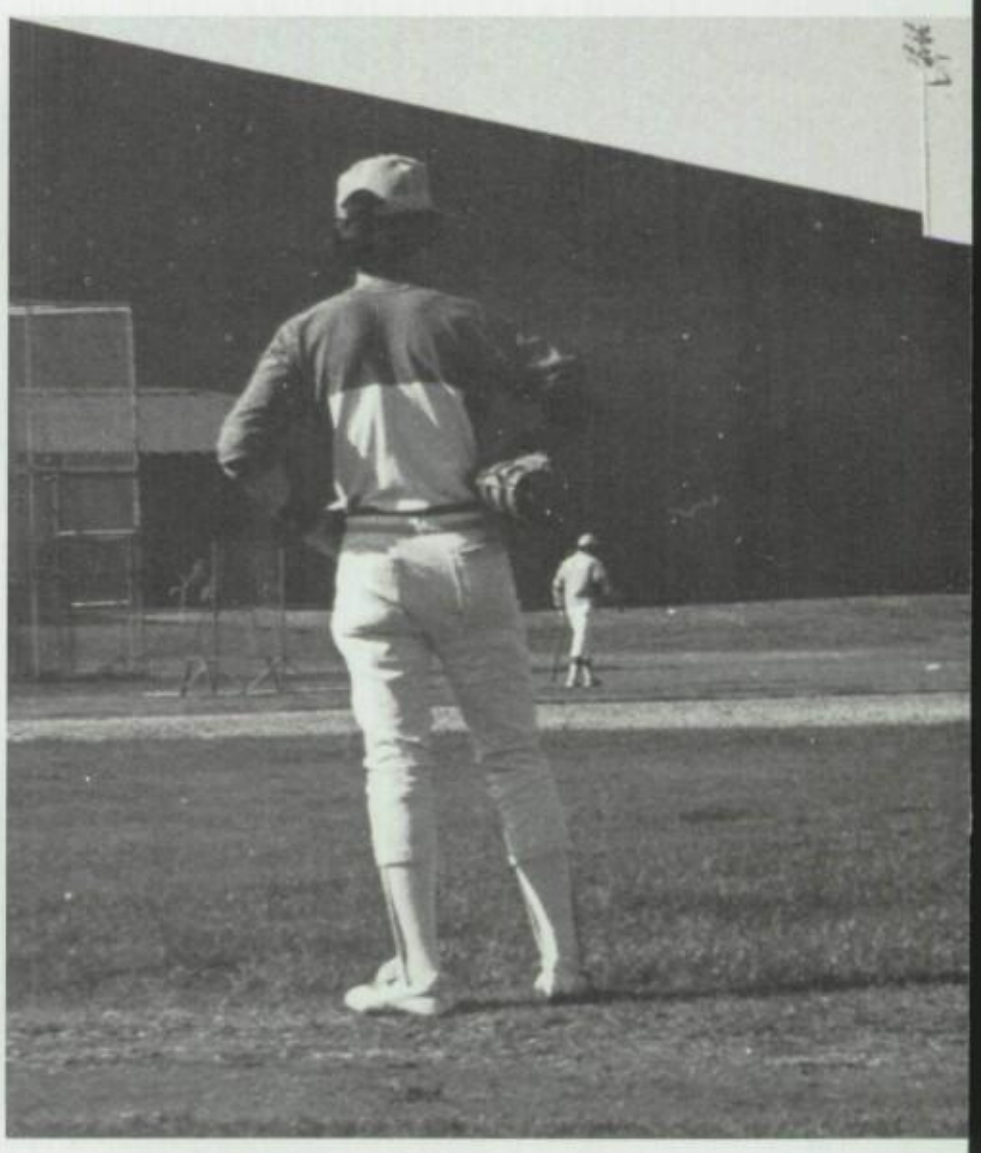
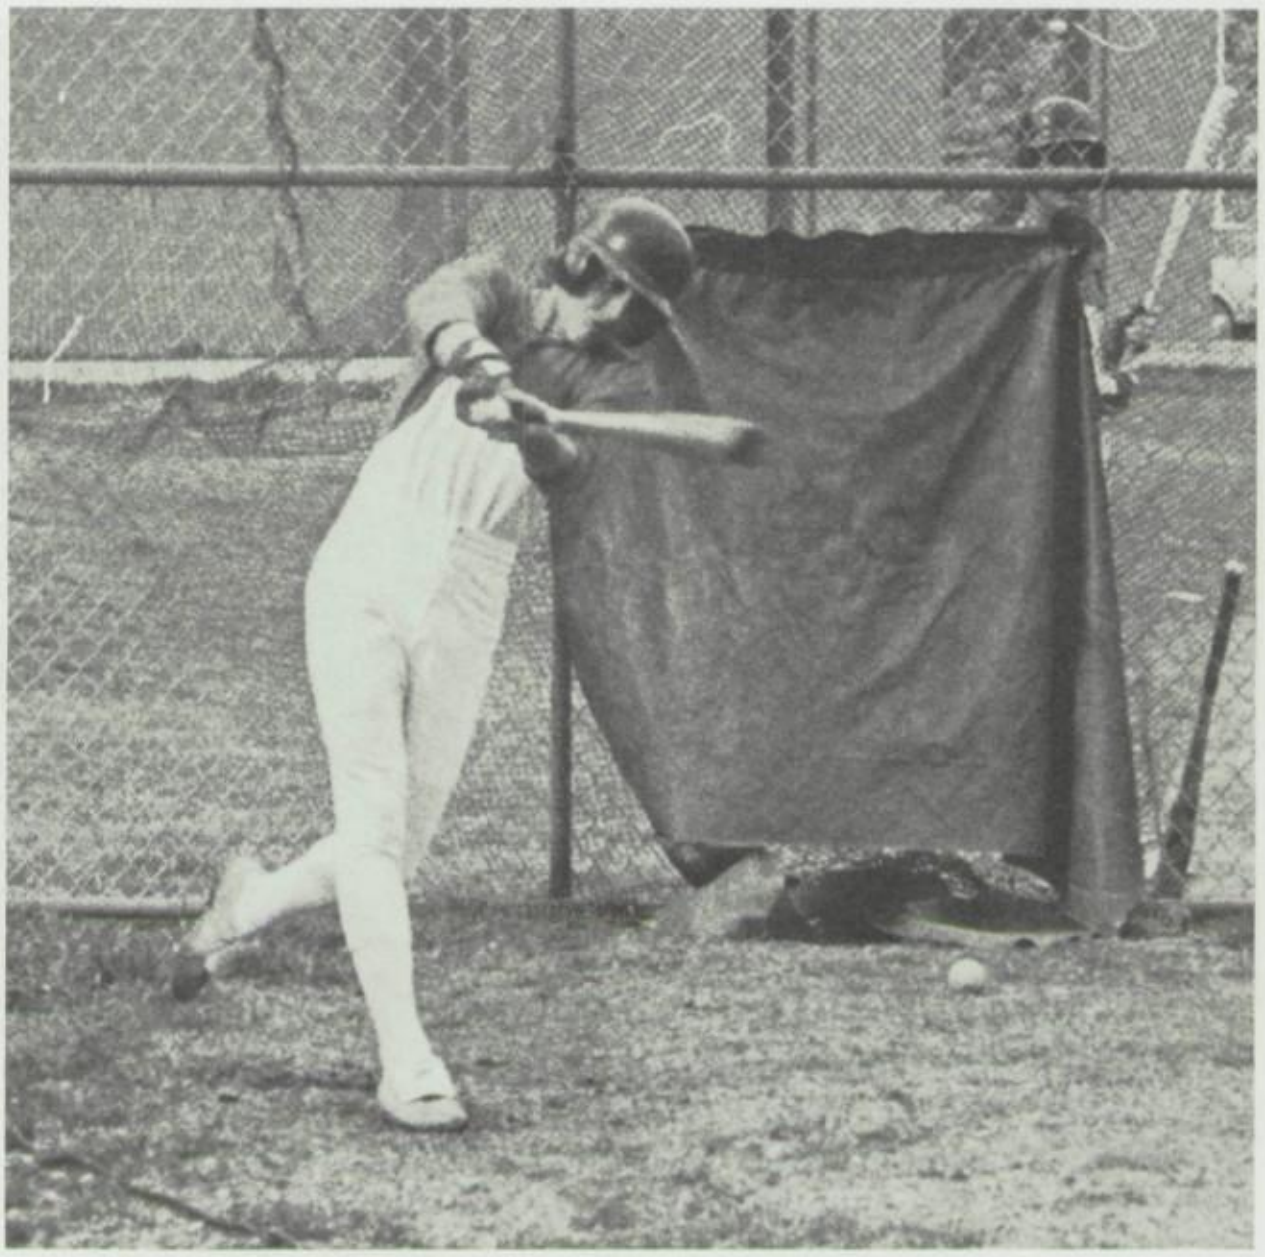
To warm up before a good practice the players just pass the ball back and forth.

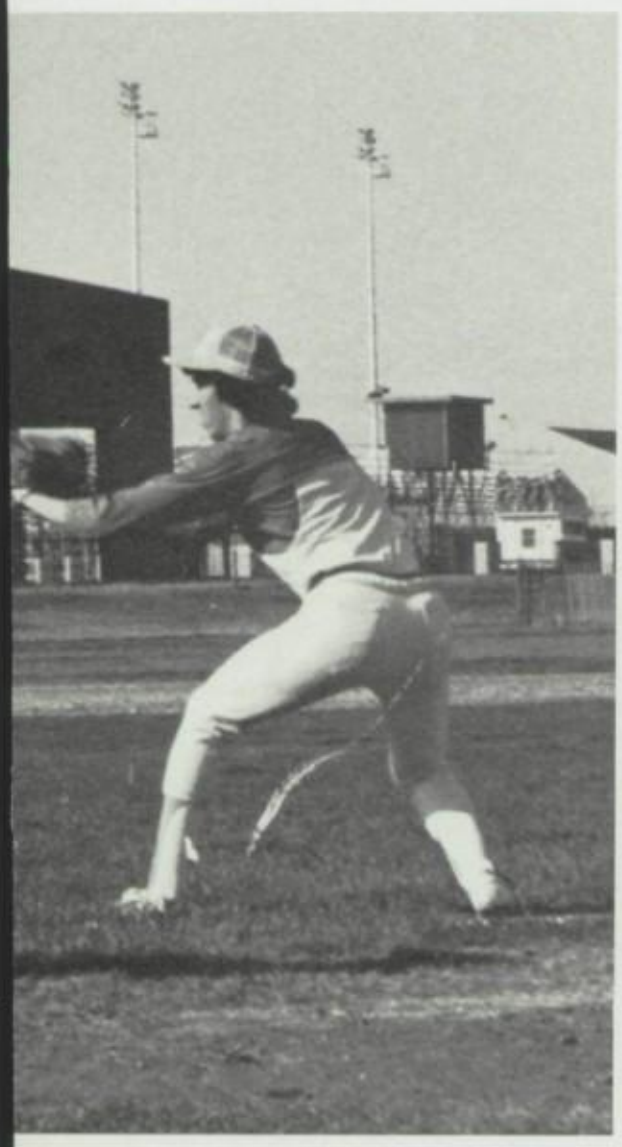


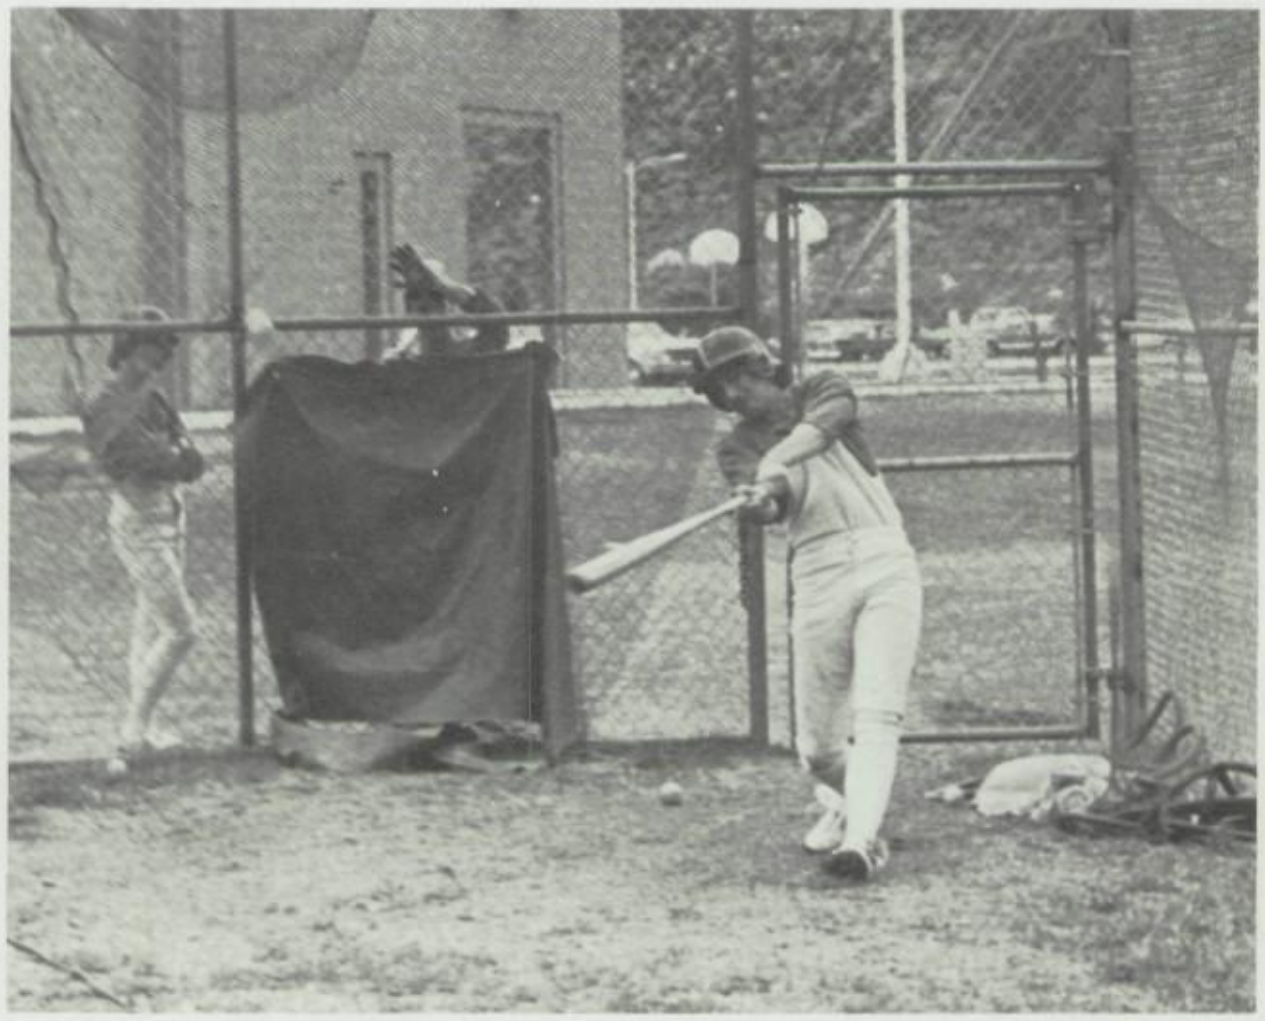
Bob Gardner gets ready for a ball which is coming his ways.

A good catcher is a key element when you have to move quick to recover the ball.



Kevin Long hits the ball to first base. All photos by D. Waddell





The players all take a lot of time to make sure their batting technique are perfect.

Paula,

It was great meeting you this year. Strange circumstances, but still great. Sorry things didn't work out for you. You can't take me so seriously all the time. I'm a joker. Don't worry so much. You are really a sweet girl. We'll have to go out this summer sometime. Take it easy sweetie.

Love

Paula- Well sweety we made it! I never would have made it through this class without you. You have been such a good friend to me. You always listened to my problems and gave me support when I was having my problems with Steve. Thanks for being there Pal. Lets get together the summer, I mean it! Call me and we will go out Okay. (942-8122) I really love your personality Paula, you are always so happy, and it makes those around you happy too. I wish you all the best in what ever you do Paula, because you only deserve the best.

Call me!!

Love,

Paula
Well I'm really glad I got to know you this year. I think your super sweet & really cute. Stay that way. Have a great summer.

Paula,
Oh really glad we had a Psy. History together Sec.
that we could become friends.
Guess Dungo would of been the same letdown as any were at the beginning of the year. But Im glad we are still friends. Have a great life out there in the big world and good luck!

Paula:

Ya a super neat person, and great friend! Creative Writing would have been so dull without you! You have always been so caring with me, through all the bad times, and then you were always there laughing in the good times. Thank-You for always being so understanding. You are a kind of friend I always look for! Stay in touch this summer! Let's go to the lake, and bake our bodies! Graduation is already here, and I'm glad your here to spend it with. Thanks for sticking up for me, when everyone got there thrills of spreading rumors. You have made my senior year great with many good memories. Let's party this Summer. You better stay in touch! Hmmm.... seeing as how you didn't leave me any page to write a speech on - I'll have to use this space wisely in explaining that no matter how we changed throughout the year, you're always going to be a best friend of mine in my heart! I can't ever forget you - you've been very important to my growth in Arizona! You're love, caring, and beauty (and uniqueness) has affected my life so much! Sometimes you just can't let go! Don't let's!

I LOVE YOU
from my heart!

For all the good & shared times...

Paula,

Am glad I met you at that party. If I wouldn't have, I probably would have punched out every wall that I saw. It's glad to know that I can talk to a girl without feeling stupid. You and Kristy are probably the coolest girls I've met this year. Hope to see you over the summer. and if not, Keep Partying
